Tolley, Leader of the Gang, and Jackson, an Associate, Arested.

Chief Wilkie of the secret service has been notified of the arrest, at Huntington, W. Va., of Charles Jackson, one of an alleged gang of notorious note raisers. Irving Tolley, the leader of the gang, was arrested in Baltimore a few days ago. Tolley has given the secret service officials trouble for several years. He was convicted of raising bank notes at Nashville. Tennessee, and sentenced to a term of five escaped from prison and since has been at | Ky., yesterday, charged with the will be tried there for the new offense. Jackson is said to have assisted Tolley in the work of raising the notes and passing them. They used two-dollar bills raising them to tens and twenties, which were see, and in North and South Carolina. The arrest of Jackson was made by saited States Marshal Frank Tyree, who for-merly was an operative of the secret servce, and was stationed at the White House several years.

The first suggestion of a reception for me at New York came prior to the action of any of the state conventions and before here was any discussion of the next camelers' League, of which Mr. Hoge is president. I assured him I should be pleased to meet the members of the league, suggesting that the reception be characterized by simplicity.

Declines an Indorsement. "Now that the actions of some of the state conventions have raised a question as to the political significance of the reception I am glad to say that it must not be regarded in the light of an indorsement for follows: Albert W. Cowles of Connecticut, the presidential nomination. While I appreciate the compliment paid by the various state conventions, I do not regard their expressions as binding upon them or upon the party of their state. I shall not prosecute them for breach of promise if they transfer their affections to another; I will not even publish their letters. To allow the reception to be regarded as an indorsement would, in the first place, be unjust to others who may be candidates.

"I have seen the names of several men mentioned as possible candidates, among them Representative Hearst, Senator Ballay and Governor Folk, who have all rendered conspicuous service to the party and the country, and their claims should be considered. The party is entitled to its most available man, and the question of availability cannot be determined so far in advance. Circumstances and issues may strengthen the claims of some one of the gentlemen mentioned, and the list should be an open one until the time comes to choose.

"I may add that it would not be just to me to be put in the attitude of announcing my candidacy or admitting the certainty of my being a candidate. It is two years before the convention meets, and I am not willing to sit on a stool and look pretty that long. I prefer to be in a position to say what I think ought to be said, write what I think ought to be written and do what I think ought to be done. Kentucky Feud Murder Confession.

A sensation was caused at the trial of former Judge Hargis and former Sheriff years in the Tennessee penitentiary. He Callahan of Breathitt county, at Beattyville, that Asbury Spicer had made a confession implicating the two chief defendants. On the day Marcum was killed Spicer was in by "Jim" Hargis to get "Tom" White, and was later dispatched by "Ed" Callahan to get Curtis Jett. A few minutes later, while Spicer was in the Hargis store, two shots rang out, and Marcum fell dead in the front door of the court house.
